"Crazy Cloth" at 25c per yard is nothing like as good value as "Crinkle Cloth" at 121/2c, for they are virtually the same.

"Crinkle Cloth" will no doubt have a better run and prove more popular than "Crazy Cloth," as the majority believe 121/2c a good and correct price to pay for a wash dress material. We find it a more salable price, at any rate, and certainly do not expect our customers to pay 25c for "Crazy Cloth" so long as they can buy "Crinkle Cloth" for 12½c. Warranted to keep its creased effect after washing. Colors— Cream, pink, light blue, and ecru.
